Briskin Cross & Sanford Attorneys Appointed to Leadership of Public Safety Non-Profit Organizations

ALPHARETTA -- Briskin Cross & Sanford (BCS) Associate Attorney Peter E. Morgan has been appointed to the 2010 Board of Directors of the Smyrna Public Safety Foundation, Inc., becoming one of three BCS attorneys serving in leadership roles for Atlanta-area charitable organizations dedicated to supporting public safety professionals.

In February, Senior Litigation Attorney David M. Messer was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Noble Heroes Foundation, Inc. for 2010, an emerging non-profit created to provide essential services and support to injured or disabled public safety professionals.

Public Safety organizations have long been a priority for BCS and law firm partner Michael D. Cross, Jr. Cross is a founding member of the Alpharetta Public Safety Foundation, Inc., which was created in 2006, and he is currently serving on the Board of Directors for 2010.

A significant portion of the firm's business and tax practice includes representing non-profit corporations, and the firm's strength in this practice area is enriched by a long history of first-hand participation and experience working directly with Non-Profits and volunteering.

About Briskin Cross & Sanford, LLC

Briskin Cross & Sanford, a business and technology law firm serving the Alpharetta and Metro Atlanta communities' entrepreneurs and privately held businesses, has long been known for its profound community involvement. The firm's attorneys have dedicated years of service in a wide array of volunteer efforts, from youth coaching to municipal steering committees. The firm was recognized by the non-profit Georgia Lawyers for the Arts, Inc. in 2008 with their Robert Lower Access to Justice Award for supporting the arts through pro bono services.
